

Spurgeon Heir of the Puritans – Ernest W. Bacon – Charles Spurgeon was surely one of God’s choicest gifts to His church in Britain, and indeed throughout the world. This biography will inspire those who read it to walk in the great heritage he left behind. $7.99

Stars in her Heart – Ella M. Robinson – Little 3-year-old Caroline adored her second brother, William, who was 11 years older than her. Yet little did she realize that someday she would make him famous. Kings and princes would come to visit him, and this great fame would be largely a result of Caroline’s work. $10.95

The Waldenses – When the Waldenses seek to serve God in their mountainous homes, a storm seems to burst upon them! As persecution deepens, will they survive? Will they remain faithful? Follow their story as it is compared with the life of an eagle. $10.95

Under the Blood Banner – Kreye and Youngberg – The story of a Hitler youth. $12.95

North America

1918 Covered Wagon Adventure – Janet C. Kahler – The family in this story needed to move from Boise, Idaho, to Boulder, Colorado. They had four horses and a wagon, for which they made a canvas cover. Along the way they met with many adventures. Find out what they did when they found a washed out bridge and when a snow storm hit! $10.95

A Girl Called Tommie – Thelma G. Norman – Raised in the backwoods country of the Ozarks, Tommie was no ordinary girl. Sporting red hair and freckles, she lived up to every inch of her tomboyish name. $11.95

A Nurse Called Tommie – Thelma G. Norman – After graduating from the 8th grade, Tommie spends the summer with her Adventist relatives and is introduced to the world of nursing. Follow her adventures as she begins a nursing program. $11.95

Bickie’s Thunder-Egg – Bert Rhoads – This is the story of a young boy and his family as they experience trials and close calls with fires, physical injuries, and theft. Through it all they learn to trust God and his plan for their lives, never knowing the answer to many of their problems is tied up with the odd rock they all know as the “Thunder-Egg”. $11.95

Ellen White Felt Set – $49.95

Filing System – $24.95

From Fisherman to Fisher of Men – Lottie Tanksley – Born to a poor family in Florida, Carl Tanksley endured many experiences that should have ended his life or at least his mobility. But God had a bigger plan for this young man. Here is his story. $12.95

George B. McClellan The Disposable Patriot – Michael J. McHugh – This study traces the military exploits of the first commander of the Army of the Potomac and examines his character and religious convictions. $7.99

In the Footsteps of the Pioneers – A “Go-It-Yourself” guide to places of interest in the early history of Seventh-day Adventists in New England, New York, and Quebec. $5.00

Laughter And Tears of the Pioneers $4.95

Lydia a Seller of Purple – Josephine Cunnington Edwards – A true story of a Pennsylvania girl looking for answers and her purpose in the closing decades of the last century. $9.95

Miracles In My Life – The auto biography of Adventist pioneer J. N. Loughborough. $2.95

Pioneer Stories – Arthur W. Spalding – What were the beginnings of the second advent movement? Are we to carry it on? $14.95

Stories of the Pilgrims – This is the inspiring story of how God raised up a tiny band of faithful Christians to establish Biblical Christianity in the New World. $9.99

Swift Arrow – Josephine Cunnington Edwards – George was only a young boy when Indians invaded the small establishment where he lived on the open frontier and stole him. But his parents had taught him well and he determined that he would learn as much as he could from his Indian captures so that when the right time came he would escape. Twelve years passed. Finally his opportunity came. Find out in this book the amazing details of this story. $10.95

The Life of George Washington – Many factors combined together to make Washington a champion of virtue and duty, but his most important leadership quality was his exemplary Christian character. Readers will be inspired by the story of his useful life. $7.99

The Life of J. E. B. Stuart – Mary L. Williamson – The life of this man, the “eyes and ears of Lee,” was a great example of valor, zeal, and devotion. His exploits will not only give readers insight into the War between the States, but will reveal Stuart’s true source of courage—his Christian faith. $7.99

The Story of the Wright Brothers and their Sister – Lois Mills – This story is a wonderful example of how Almighty God chooses to use the foolish things of this world to confound the wise. It is nothing short of a miracle that the two sons of a little known Christian minister, experienced only in bicycle repair and largely self-educated, would be responsible for unlocking the secrets of flight to a waiting world. $7.99

Whither Thou Goest – Ken was in front, leading the music. When Alcyon walked into the meeting that night his face lit up. Why? Ken had been looking for God’s guidance. He prayed, “If this is your will, if Alcyon is the one for me, please bring her to meeting tonight.” Later, in retelling the story, he laughed, “No wonder my face lit up!” Little did he know how pivotal his prayer was to his future. $14.95

Beyond Our Dreams – Alcyon Ruth Fleck – Looking out the window Alcyon saw a man take out a gun and say, “Come closer, Mr.” She immediately ran to the front door, opened it, and urgently whispered to her husband, “Come in quick! He has a gun!” It was just one of the many alarming experiences of their mission life. Sequel to Whither Thou Goest. $14.95

True Stories of Great Americans for Young Americans – There is nothing which our boys and girls so much love to read or have told to them as true stories of the lives of great and noble people. This is what this book does. Hardback. $25.00

Character for Life – Don Hawkinson – When America was very young, the men and women who cut a civilization out of the New World wilderness did so with sweat, blood, and ingenuity. They also used those invisible qualities so necessary for such an undertaking, namely, elements of character the new country desperately needed. This book brings to life the profiles of those men and women. Hardback. $29.99

South America

In the Land of the Incas – F. A. Stahl – In the face of formidable barriers posed by race, religion, and class, the Stahls threw in their lot with the indigenous peoples. What was the result? What were they able to accomplish by so doing? $12.95

Islands

Curse of the Cannibals – Virgil E. Robinson – Courage, self-possession, fortitude, faith, tenacity are among the words that may be used to describe the character of many a modern missionary. But few have matched the Scotsman John Paton in manifesting these qualities. Here is his story. $11.95

Jungle Thorn – Norma R. Youngberg – A jungle girl one day suffers an injury which results in her lose of sight and becoming horribly disfigured. When she becomes friends with a missionary, he urges her parents to let her go to Singapore and receive medical treatment. On her journey will she be restored to health? Will she meet Jesus? $8.95

Singer on the Sand – Norma R. Youngberg – A missionary family, an island, suspicious villagers, and danger. What a great setting for God to intervene and miraculously show His power to save! $8.95

Miscellaneous

A Casket – A story about a dream Mr. Miller had about the Bible. Coloring book as well. $6.25

Always In His Keeping – Based on a true story during the time of John Wesley, a brother and sister, stolen as infants, struggle to find their true identities and the faith to rest in a God who sometimes allows the righteous to suffer. Hardback. $17.00

