“In the system of instruction used in the common schools, the most essential part of education is neglected—the religion of the Bible.
Education not only affects to a great degree the life of the student in this world, but its influence extends to eternity.”
Christian Education 39

“In an age like ours,
in which iniquity abounds, and God’s character and His law are alike regarded with contempt, special care must be taken to teach the youth to study, to reverence and obey the divine will as revealed to man.
The fear of the Lord
is fading from the minds of our youth, because of their neglect of Bible study.”

Christian Education 39

“The Bible is the book of books.
If you love the Word of God, searching it as you have opportunity, that you may come into the possession of the rich treasure that it contains,
and be thoroughly furnished unto all good works, then you may be assured that Jesus is drawing you to Himself.
But to read the Scriptures in a casual way, without seeking to comprehend Christ’s lessons or to comply with His requirements, is not enough.
There are treasures in the Word of God that can be discovered only by sinking the shaft deep into the mines of truth.”
